Westerly Loses Prominent Resident

eath of Charles P. Chapman, at 84-Ex-Gov. Utter's His torical Address-artin P. marks -ead-Purse of Money Presented Kev. John G. Lutton for European

The Town of Westerly was the subject of an interesting address by exGovernor George H. Utter of Westerly at a meeting of the Rhode Island Historical society in Providence, Tuesday evening. The governor has seen Westerly develop from a village to a sizeable town, and was therefore familiar with his subject.

The speaker referred to the estab-

with his subject.

The speaker referred to the establishment of the school system in the late 60s after many of the boys of the village had attended school in what was called the "rat house." He also made mention of the Dixon and Chace families, noted as lawyers and bank men in the community, the religious life and strong characters and spoke of the towns as being a community of "isms."

mentioned how Lotteryville, by some called Avondale, was established under a lottery under state grant, and also the fact that a church in Hapkinton was erected with money made by holding of a lottery under authority.

The Burdicks have the call in Westerly, as the name appears 96 times in the local directory, while there are only 67 Browns, 57 Smiths and 56 Sulonly 67 Browns, 57 Smiths and 56 Sul-livans. There are 28 Clarks and 35 Clarkes, 51 Crandalls, 47 Barbers and 5 Barbours, 48 Kenyons, 41 Chapmans, 41 Sheas, 40 Gavitts, 27 Babcocks, 33 Lampbears, Lampheres and Lampheres, 33 Murphys, 23 Stillmans, 34 Collins, 22 Blivens, 30 Greenes, 27 Lynch, 26 Champlins, 25 Saunders, 24 Wilcox, 23 Thompsons, 22 Pendletons, 22 Dono-hues, 29 Maxsons and 21 Taylors.

Charles Pendleton Chapman died on Charles Pendleton Chapman died on Wednesday morning after a brief illness at his home, 106 High street, Westerly. He was born in Westerly 84 years ago. In early life he engaged in farming and subsequently went into the granite husiness on a large scale, opening his own granite quarries, which by judicious management yielded him a fortune. He not only quarried granite, but also manufactured monuments in finished building granite stock in large quantities. He retired from active business about ten years ago and devoted his time to his extensive real estate holdings.

Mr. Chapman served as a member of tensive real estate holdings.

Mr. Chapman served as a member of the town council and for many years was a member of the town board of assessors, and up to the time of his death was an assessor for the Westerly fire district. He was also president of the River Bend Cemetery association. He had thorough knowledge of land values and his judgment was respected in many cases that were referred to him as a member of cemmittees appointed by the town council for the assessment of damages and benefits in matters pertaining to public improvements.

lic improvements.

He also acted in many condemnation cases for the town, and he was tion cases for the town, and he was selected by the superior court, with Harry P. Cross and John T. Edmond, a commissioner in condemnation proceedings brought by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company against properties in Westerly in connection with the proposed railroad improvements.

Mr. Chapman was the son of Case Chapman and Mary Pendleton Chapman and is the last member of that large family. One of his sisters was mother of the late Henry Cottrell of Norwich. He is survived by his wife, Eliza Ann Wilcox Chapman, and one son, Charles Denison Chapman.

Martin P. Marks, whose wife was Miss Agnes Brayton of Westerly, died Tuesday at his home in Yonkers, N. Y. Mrs. Marks' three sisters, Mrs. Smith of Waterbury and Mrs. Burdick and Mrs. Brown of Westerly, left here Wednesday to attend the funeral, which will be held in Yonkers on Thursday. Mr. Marks had many acquaintances in Westerly, where he made frequent visits. Mrs. Marks was a daughter of Judge James W. Brayton, who became a constituent member of the First Baptist church of Westerly nearly seventy-five years ago, and who was the last surviving member of the constituent body.

Earl Blanchard, in behalf of the C. C. club of the Broad Street Christian church, presented a handsome purse to Minister John G. Dutton for use in his contemplated trip to Europe. The presentation was made at the annual banquet of the club, and Mr. Dutton made cordial response in appreciation. Remarks were made by William B. Austin, George W. West and L. L. Foster, and by Head Masters Ledward, Whitchead and Mitchell.

Benjamin Solomon of Carolina has gone to Norfolk, where he will be giv-en trial as catcher for the basebali team representing that city in the state league. He is brother of Louis Solomon of Westerly.

The resident members of the Coast Artillery corps, Rhode Island National Guard, Lieut. Colonel Charles H. Ledward, Captain Arthur N. Nash, ordinance officer, and Captain Bourden A. Babcock and Lieut. Robert G. Thackeray, have decided to give an Easter reception and ball in the state armory. The date of the event is Wednesday, March 30, and Gavitt's Ideal orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music.

AUTO ROUTE SYMBOLS TO BE SIMPLIFIED. New Road Directors to Help Tourists. Simplification of the route symbols the bureau of tours committee of the Automobile Club of America at one of its recent meetings, with the result that the heiroglyphics representing "Bear right," "Bear left," "Jog right and left," "Jog left and right," "Cross bridge over railroad" and "Pass under railroad" have been eliminated.

Where "Through crossroads" was used the new description will read "S. O." for straight on. The three grade crossing symbols heretofore used will now be uniform, and where "Road crosses bridge over railroad" or "Passes under railroad," the new route description will indicate this fact with "Over" and "Under," followed by the railroad sign. The former symbol indicating "Caution—Danger" was a Maltese cross, but this has been changed to a triangle to avoid confusion with the "Cross trolley" symbol, and further to make the symbol uniform with the plain red triangles now placed on the state highways at danger points by the New York state highway department.

This makes a very complete and distinctive set of symbols for the club's route description, the use of which symbols enables the incorporation of four times the number of routesin a single volume than could be incorporated if no symbols were used.

WARNING AUTOISTS.

Must Have New State Markers-Old Ones Void Feb. 10.

Secretary of State Matthew A. Rogers is sending out warnings to autoists that the new auto markers are now out and must be carried to replace the old ones. The old markers were formerly declared void Feb. 10, and all motorists falling to carry the new ones now are liable to prosecution.

The new markers are as follows:
Private owners—White with red figures.

ures.

Manufacturers, dealers, liverymen
White with red figures.

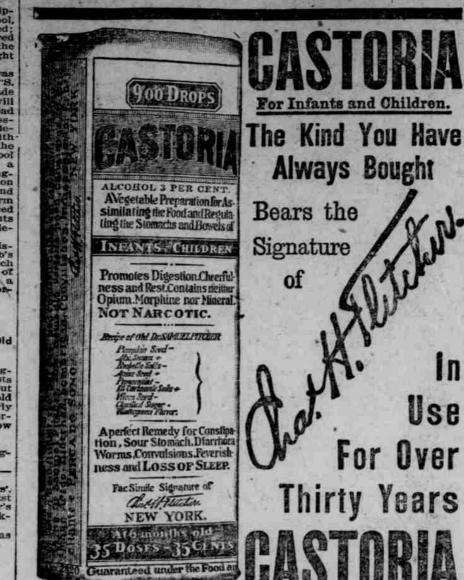

White with red figures.

All cars carrying manufacturers, dealers or liverymen's markers must also bear on the rear the operator's markers, which are of black backgound with yellow figures.

The number plates are made up as follows, for example:

Private owners—C-2498,
Manufacturers—C-2498-M,
Dealers—C-2498-D.
Liverymen—C-2498-L.

The Yarmouth herring season re-cently closed and it is reported that the catch amounted to nearly 800,000,-000 fish.
